

Alstom announces the suspension of S&P Global Ratings' ratings

23 September 2016 – Alstom has requested S&P Global Ratings to withdraw all of its ratings on the group and to cease rating it going forward. This decision, effective as of today, is made in the context of the stabilisation of the group's financial situation and its strong liquidity in order to reduce its administrative costs. Alstom remains rated by Moody's (Baa2).
